Announcements on CB3 – Business Management

Dear Candidates,

As part of the ongoing efforts to consolidate and simplify extant examination processes, we are pleased to announce that CB3 – Business Management exam will now be dovetailed with Actuarial Exams starting November 2024.

This change will allow students to plan and complete the CB3 exam alongside other actuarial exams. The format of CB3 – Business Management exam shall remain as is, i.e., MCQ based. This change eliminates the pre-requisite of Business game and pre-course assignment before the exam.

The process of exam registration and study material fees will be notified shortly.

We are confident that this initiative will enable your preparation efforts and planning.

Wishing everyone success in the upcoming exams and future endeavors!
