

Institute of Actuaries of India

Unit no. F-206, 2nd Floor, "F" Wing in Tower 2, Seawoods Grand Central, Plot no R-1,
Sector 40, Seawoods, Near Seawoods Railway Station, Navi Mumbai - 400706

Professionalism, Ethics and Conduct Seminar organized by the Advisory Group on Professionalism, Ethics and Conduct

Date: 28th February 2018

Time: 09:30 am to 06:00 pm

Venue: Hotel Sea Princess, Juhu Beach, Mumbai 400049. Tel: 26469500, 26611111

The Seminar focus:

There are several demands that members could not adhere to the required professional credits for their minimum CPD hours to get eligible for their CoP. There was IFS Seminars which members could attend and the facility has been given to members to view the IFS videos, reply the questions and be eligible for professional credits.

Anyways, keeping the members' concern into mind, IAI is launching a programme on professionalism and ethics as per detail below.

Speakers: The seminars would be conducted by the renowned professionals from the Actuarial and other professions to share their views and provide insights on the topics of Professionalism, Ethics and Conduct.

Prerequisite: There are no prerequisites.

Who Should Attend? Any IAI Members interested in professionalism, ethics and require professionalism CPD requirement under APS 9

General Points:

✓ Participation Fees - Excluding taxes

Student	2500
Fellows	5000
Non Members	6000

✓ Dress Code: Business Casual

✓ CPD Credit for IAI members: 6 hours (Professional), as per APS 9

✓ Registration: 12th February 2018 - 24th February 2018

✓ Capacity: Admission will be on first-come-first served basis subject to receipt of payment.

Register at: <http://www.actuariesindia.org>

Contact: Gururaj Nayak at hod@actuariesindia.org or Binita Rautela at marketing@actuariesindia.org for any assistance.

Sanjeeb Kumar
President, IAI

Anil Kumar Singh
Chair, Advisory Group on PEC