Subject : The 23rd Asian Actuarial Conference – Event Cancellation

Dear Members,

We would like to convey our highest appreciation and gratitude to the Asian Actuarial Congress for the opportunity to the Society of Actuaries of Indonesia to host the 23rd Asian Actuarial Conference (AAC) that is scheduled to be held in Bali, Indonesia on 20-22 October 2020.

Despite all of the well-planned preparations, it is to our greatest extent of regret and apology that we have decided to call-off the event due to the development and continuance of the life threatening Covid-19 pandemic that has affected the world including Indonesia.

We believe that preserving members' safety, health and wellness are the main important concerns and priorities.

The Society of Actuaries of Indonesia will be in an immediate further discussion with the Asian Actuarial Congress to decide on the most feasible alternative schedule of the Conference, of which Members will be notified about the updates in due course.
