CHAPTER III PROCEDURE OF ENQUIRY

8. Procedure to be followed by Director on a complaint.- (1) The Director or an officer authorized by the Council in this behalf shall, within sixty days of the receipt of a complaint under rule 3, -
- (a) if the complaint is received against an individual member, send particulars of the acts of commission or omission alleged, or as the case may be, a copy of the complaint to that member at his professional address ;
- (b) if the complaint is received against a firm, send particulars of the acts of commission or omission alleged or as the case may be, a copy of the complaint to the firm at the address of its head office as entered in the Register of Offices of firms maintained by the Institute, with a notice calling upon the firm to disclose the name or names of the member or members concerned and to send particulars of acts of commission or omission or as the case may be, a copy of the complaint, to such members:

Provided that while disclosing the name or names of the member or members, the firm shall send a declaration signed or, as the case may be, jointly signed by the member or members concerned to the effect that he, she or they shall be responsible for answering the allegations mentioned in the complaint and that the particulars of acts of commission or omission or the copy of the complaint sent to the firm by the Director had been duly received by him, her or them.

Explanation. — For the purposes of this sub-rule, notice to the firm shall be deemed to be a notice to all the members who are partners or employees of that firm as on the date of registration of the complaint.

(2) A member whose name is disclosed by the firm shall be responsible for replying the complaint, provided such a member was associated, either as partner or employee, with the firm, against which the complaint has been filed, at the time of occurrence of the alleged misconduct.

Provided that if no member of the firm, whether erstwhile or present, own responsibility for the allegation made against the firm, then the firm as a whole shall be responsible for answering the allegation or allegations and, as such, all the members who were partners or employees of that firm, as on the date or occurrence of the alleged misconduct, shall be responsible for answering the allegation or allegations as contained in the complaint.

(3) The Defendant shall, within 21 days from of the receipt the copy of the complaint, or within such additional time, not exceeding thirty days, as may be allowed by the Director, submit his written statement before the Director.

(4) On receipt of the written statement of the Defendant, the Director may send a copy of written statement to the complainant, and the complainant shall, within 21 days of receipt the copy of the written statement, or within such additional time, not exceeding thirty days, as may be allowed by the Director, file to the Director, his rejoinder, if any.

(5) On perusal of the complaint, written statement, or rejoinder, as the case may be, the Director may call for such additional particulars or documents connected therewith either from the complainant or the Defendant or any party to the complaint, as he may consider appropriate:

Provided that if no written statement is submitted by the Defendant within the time allowed under sub-rule (3) or no rejoinder is filed by the complainant within the time allowed under sub-rule (4), the Director shall presume that the Defendant or the complainant, as the case may be, have nothing further to state and take further action as provided under this Chapter.

9. Examination of Complaint.— (1) The Director shall examine the complaint, written statement, rejoinder, or, as the case may be, other additional particulars or documents, if any, for holding prima facie opinion as to whether the member or the firm is guilty or not of any professional or other misconduct under the as specified Schedule;

(2) Where the Director is of the prima facie opinion that the member or the firm is guilty of any misconduct as specified under the Schedule, he shall place his opinion along with the complaint and other additional particulars or documents and all other relevant papers before the Committee;

(3) If the Committee, agrees with the prima facie opinion of the Director under sub-rule (1) above, then the Committee may proceed further under Chapter IV.

(4) If the Committee, disagrees with the prima facie opinion of the Director under sub-rule (1), it shall forward the complaint to Council to close the complaint or advise the Director to make further enquiry into the complaint.

(5) If the Director is of the prima facie opinion that the member or the firm is not guilty of any misconduct under the Schedule, he shall place the matter before the Committee.

(6) If the Committee agrees with the opinion of the Director, he shall refer the matter to the Council for its closure.

(7) If the Committee disagrees with the opinion of the Director, it may either proceed under Chapter IV of these rules or may advise the Director to further enquiry into the matter.

(8) The Director shall, after making further enquiry as advised by the Committee under sub- rules (4) or (7) of this rule, proceed under this rule.

10. Mode of sending notice . - (1) Every notice issued by the Director or the Committee under these rules shall be sent to the member, firm or any other person, by registered post with acknowledgment due or speed post or a messenger, except where specified otherwise in any rule.

(2) If any notice is returned as unserved or undelivered with an endorsement to the effect that the addressee refused to accept the notice, the notice shall be deemed to have been served or delivered, as the case may be.

(3) If the notice is returned with an endorsement to the effect that the addressee cannot be found at the address given, the Director shall ask the complainant or any other person who may be in a position to provide another address of the member or firm or person whose address is found to be not correct, and on production of the correct address, a fresh notice shall be served or delivered on such address.

(4) Where the notice is returned under sub - rule (3), it may be served by fixing a copy thereof in some conspicuous place at the professional address or residence of the Defendant which was last registered with the Institute or in such other manner as the Committee may think fit and such service shall be deemed to be sufficient of service for the purposes of these rules.

- 11. Certain provisions relating to complaint also to be applicable for information relating to misconduct of members . - The procedure laid down for dealing with complaints in sub - rule (7) of rule 3, sub - rules (1), (2), (3) and (4) of rule 5, sub - rules (1), (2), (3) and (5) of rule 8 rule 9 and rule 10 shall also apply to information received by the Director under these rules.
- 12. Time limit on entertaining complaint or information . - Where the Director is satisfied that there shall be difficulty in securing proper evidence of the alleged misconduct, or that the member or firm against whom the information or complaint, as the case may be, has been received shall find it difficult to lead evidence to defend himself or itself, as the case may be, on account of the time lag, or that changes have taken place rendering the inquiry procedurally inconvenient or difficult, he may refuse to entertain a complaint or information in respect of any misconduct made more than seven years after the same was alleged to have been committed and submit the same to the Committee.

CHAPTER IV DISCIPLINARY COMMITTEE

- 13. Functioning of the Committee (1) All questions which come up before the Committee shall be decided by a majority of the Members present and voting, and in the event of an equality of votes, the Presiding Officer or in his absence, the person presiding at the meeting of the Committee, shall have a second or casting vote.
- (2) The quorum for any meeting of the Committee shall be two members
- (3) In the event of the Presiding Officer not being able to attend the meeting of the Committee, the member of the Council duly elected by the Council under subsection (1) of section 26 of the Act shall act as the Presiding Officer.
- 14. Procedure to be followed by the Committee. - (1) The Committee shall follow summary disposal procedure in dealing with all cases before it, as laid down in this Chapter.
- (2) If the Committee decide to proceed further under rule 2 or rule 9, it shall expeditiously cause to deliver to the Defendant and the complainant, a copy each of the following, namely,-
- (a) opinion formed by the Director on the complaint or information; and
- (b) particulars or documents relied upon by the Director, if any, during the course of formulation of opinion.

(3) The Committee shall inform the Defendant to file a written statement, within such time as may be specified:

Provided that the Committee may grant additional time for filing his written statement on application made by the Defendant on his adducing sufficient reasons to the satisfaction of the Committee for seeking additional time:

Provided further that such additional time shall not be given more than once and if the Defendant does not file the written statement within the additional time granted under first proviso, the Committee shall presume that the Defendant has no further submissions to make and shall proceed to decide the case on merits.

(4) The Defendant shall send a copy of his written statement along with supporting documents to the Director and to the complainant within the time.

(5) The complainant may, after receipt of the written statement, file the rejoinder, if any, to the Committee, with a copy of the rejoinder to the Defendant along with documents, if any.

(6) The Presiding Officer shall fix the date, hour and place for hearing, of the information or complaint, which shall not ordinarily be later than 45 days from the date of receipt of opinion taken by; Committee and the Committee shall cause a notice to be sent of such date, hour and place to the Director, Defendant and complainant and require them to appear before it in person to make oral submission, if any.

(7) On the date fixed for hearing, if the Defendant, on receipt of the service of notice, under sub – rule (6), does not appear either in person or through his authorized representative, as the case may be, the Committee may precede ex-parte and proceed with the matter as provided under sub-rule (19) or, as the case may be, direct fresh notice to be served.

(8) During the first hearing, the Committee shall read out the allegations to the Defendant along with the summary of opinion arrived at by the Director, and ask the Defendant whether he pleads guilty to the allegations made against him:

Provided that, if the Defendant does not appear before the Committee on the place, date and time fixed by it, the Committee shall proceed with the proceeding in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter.

(9) If the Defendant pleads guilty, the Committee shall record the statement of Defendant and take submit the report to the Council as per the provision of the Act.

(10) If the Defendant does not plead guilty, then the Committee shall fix a date for examination of witnesses or production of documents, if any.
