Brief on Topic

Topic - Cracking the recruitment & selection process

Speaker - Parul Murthy

The right person for the right job is essential for a win-win situation for the potential employee and the employer. Organizations these days are highly conscious of the competencies that employees bring along as these are essential to gain an edge over the competition. While companies adopt various selection tools to get the right talent, it is imperative for the individuals to share the responsibility of a befitting presentation in the selection process. The session aims to provide the candidates with an overview on how to put their best foot forward in the selection process, starting from:

- Pit holes to avoid while making resumes
- Job avenues
- Preparation & Interview process
- Cultural fitment
