

Institute of Actuaries of India
Statutory body under an Act of Parliament

20th Global
Conference of Actuaries
4th - 6th March, 2019 | Mumbai, India

Unlocking Asia's insurance potential for financing a sustainable future

Arup Chatterjee

Principal Financial Sector Specialist

Sustainable Development and Climate Change Department

ASIAN DEVELOPMENT BANK

Session P1 (Solo)
Tuesday, March 5, 2019

Key messages

- Understanding risk is key to sustainable development
- Closing the protection gap is one of the biggest opportunities
- Investments for the future hinge on sound risk assessment
- Resilient development significantly reduces residual risks
- Risk layering is a critical strategic tool
- Tech-driven solutions can generate value
- Financial stability is a precondition for financing sustainable development
- Actuaries are well placed to develop sustainable financial solutions

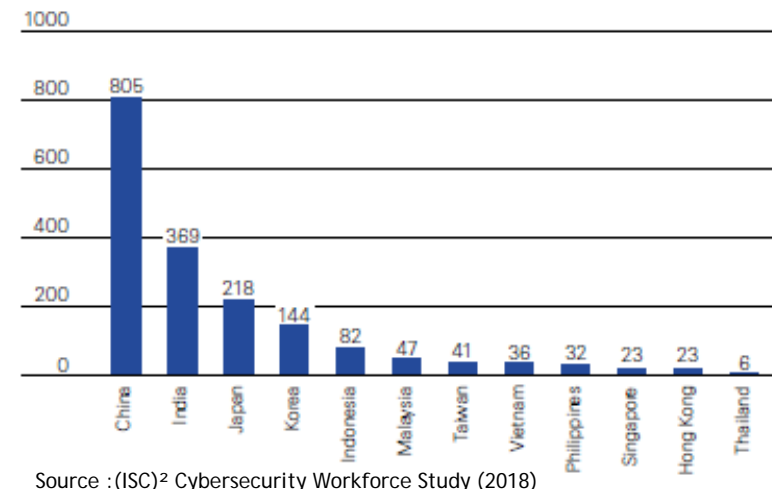

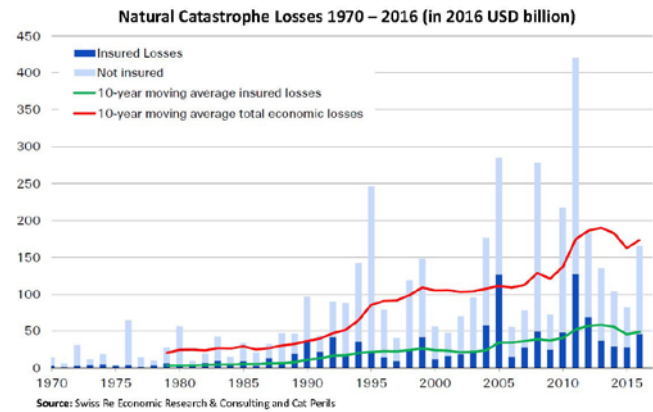

Understanding risk is key to sustainable development

Source: www.krishijagaran.com

Closing the protection gap is one of the biggest opportunities

Confronting Global Underinsurance amid Heightened Global Risks

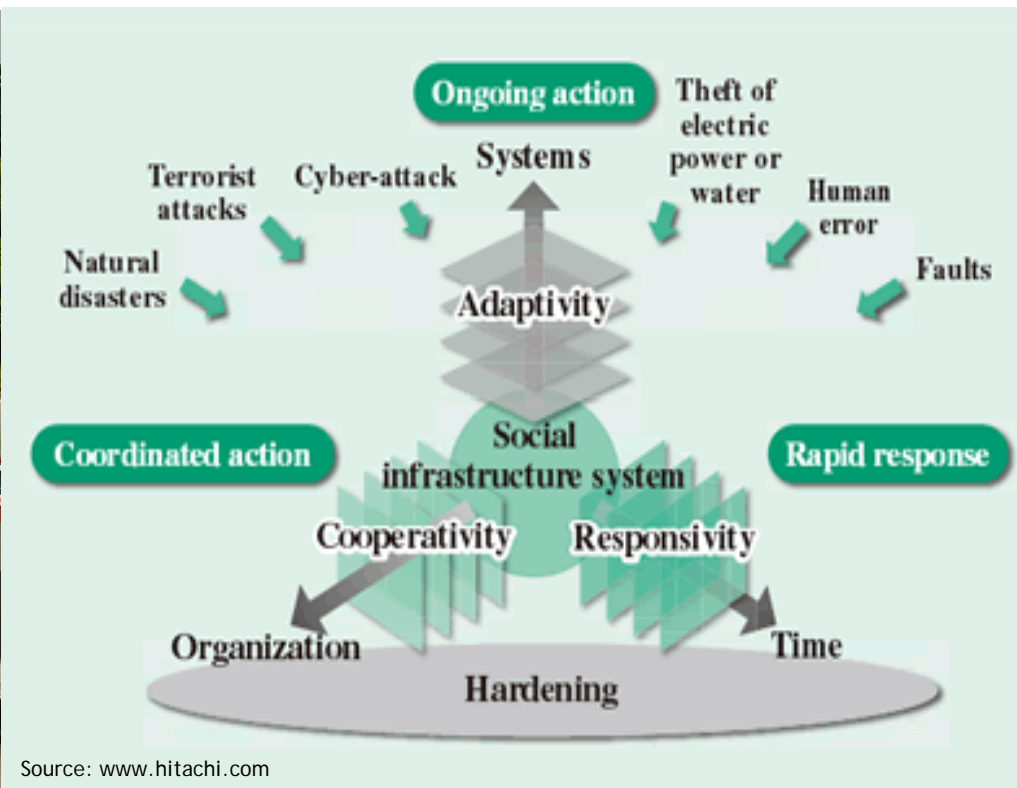

Investments of the future hinge on sound risk assessment source: www.geographyalltheway.com

Resilient development significantly reduces residual risks

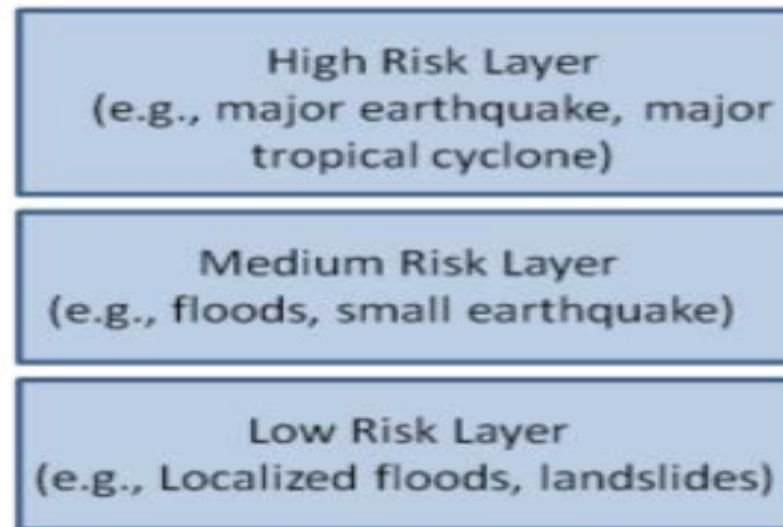

SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS

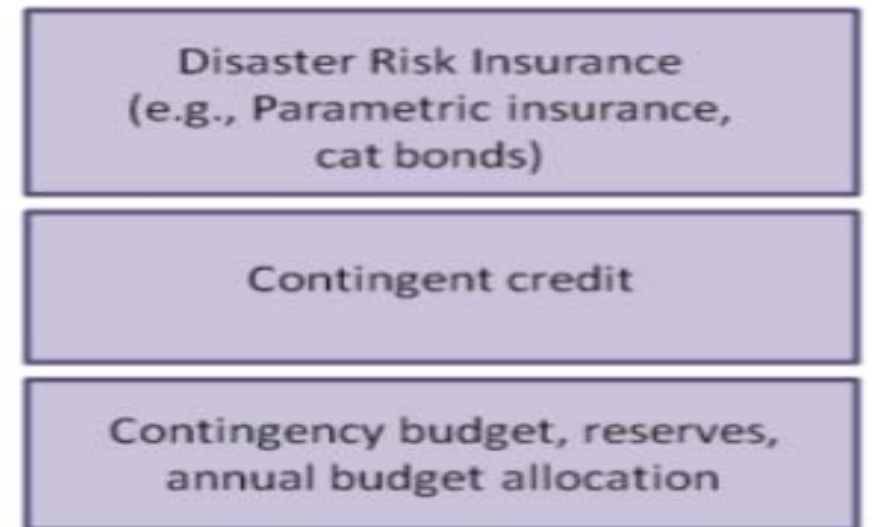

Risk layering is a critical strategic tool

Disaster Risks

Disaster Risk Financing Instruments

Source: World Bank

20th Global
Conference of Actuaries
4th - 6th March, 2019 | Mumbai, India

Institute of Actuaries of India

Tech-driven solutions can generate value

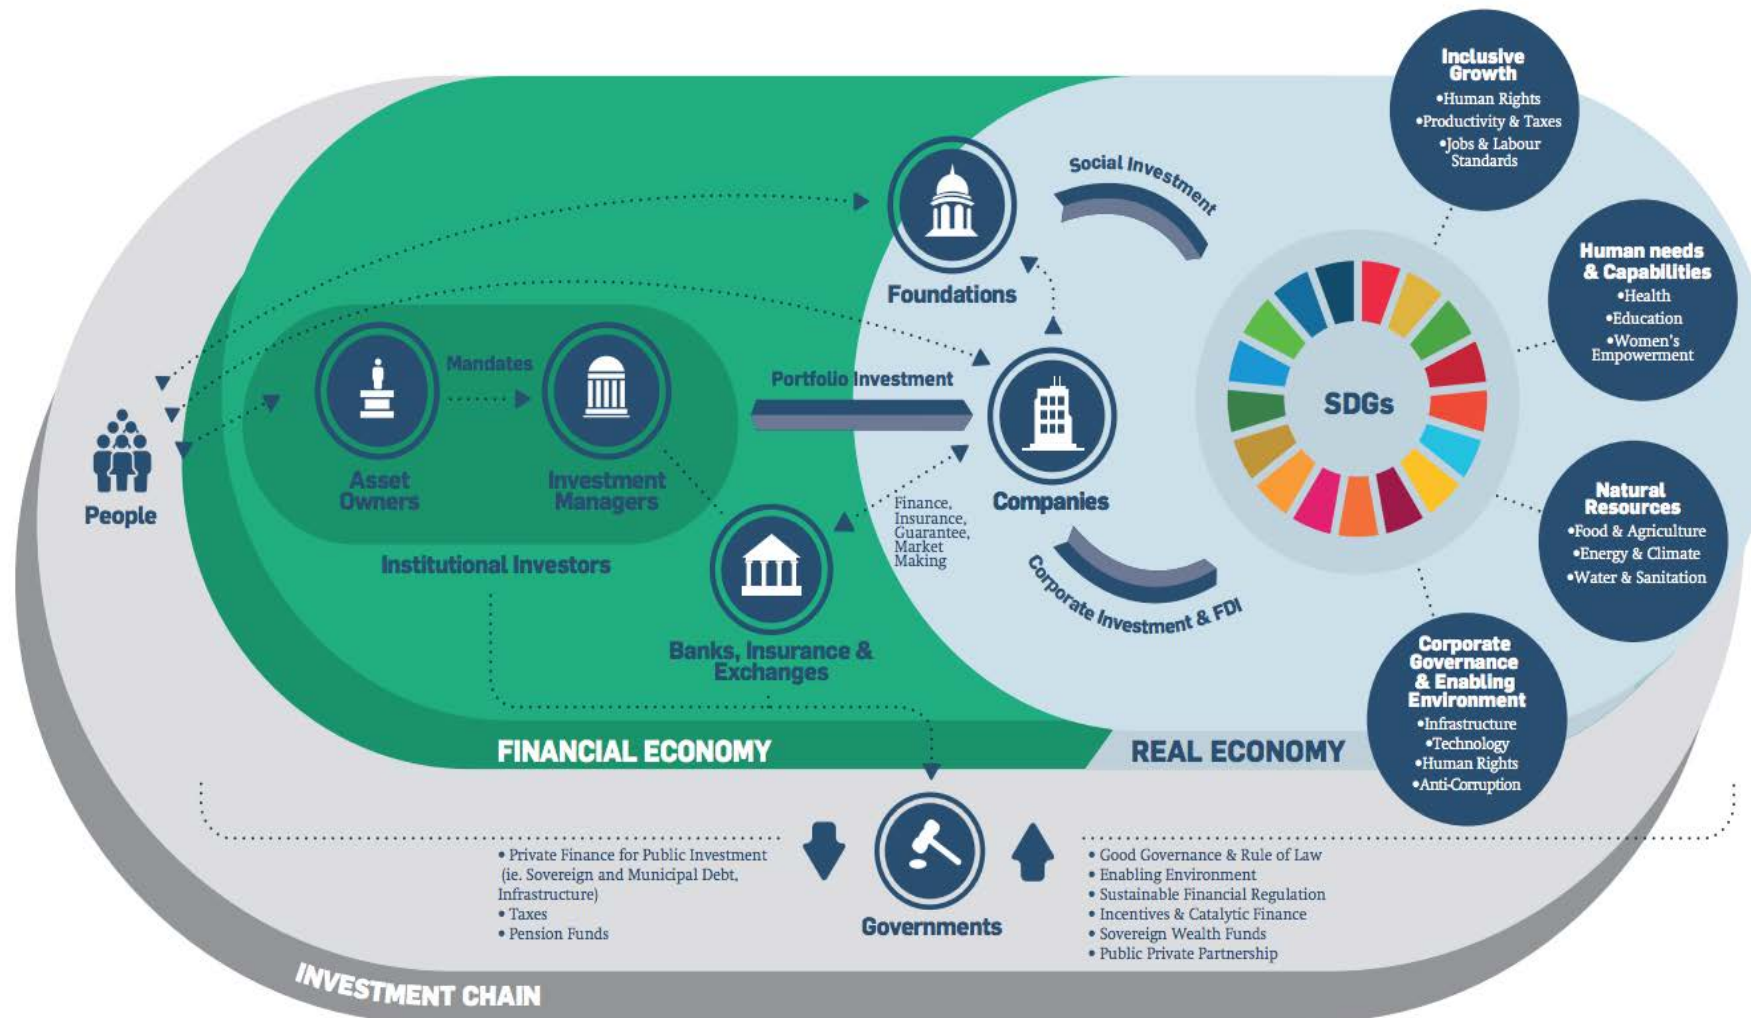

Source: Silver Stone Group

Financial stability is a precondition for financing sustainable development

www.uncdd.int

Actuaries are well placed to develop sustainable financial solutions

Institute of Actuaries of India
Statutory body under an Act of Parliament

20th Global Conference of Actuaries

4th - 6th March, 2019 | Mumbai, India

achatterjee@adb.org

THANK YOU

5 March, 2019

