

Speakers Profile & Brief on Topic

Subhendu Kumar Bal
Appointed Actuary
SBI Life Insurance Company Ltd

Subhendu is a Fellow of Institute of Actuaries of India (FIAI) and post graduate in Statistics from Calcutta University. He is a Chairperson of an advisory group of HR, Admin and Finance committee, member of advisory group of Examination committee & Examiner of Institute of Actuaries of India.

Subhendu has experiences of more than 21 years in several life insurance companies and was a visiting faculty of a Management Institute, teaching the courses on Life & Health Group and Risk Insurance Management

Topic: Indian Insurance Industry – Life, General and Beyond

Brief on Topic: The speaker will discuss the following:

- Insurance Industry
- The Actuarial Profession
- Examination System
- Issues on Actuarial Papers while studying CT3

Vikash Kumar Sharma
AAO (Actuarial)
Life Insurance Corporation of India

Qualified Actuary from IAI and IFoA. Working in the actuarial department of LIC of India for around 5 years having experience in reporting, valuation, modelling and underwriting.

Topic: Actuarial exams - how to tackle

Brief on Topic: The speaker will discuss the following:

- Managing work and studies
- Common mistakes to avoid in exams
- Study techniques and importance of regular practice
- Beyond CT series
- Link between CT series and other papers

Suresh Sindhi
AVP Actuarial
Star Union Dia - ichi Life Insurance Company Ltd.

Suresh is the Fellow member of Institute of Actuaries of India and Institute of Actuaries, UK. He has more than fourteen years experience in the actuarial domain. He has worked in the actuarial departments of various life insurance companies, pension consulting firm and the reinsurance company. In particular, he has involved in many areas such as statutory valuations of liabilities, product development, pricing, experience analysis, asset-liability management, business planning, valuation of Retirement Benefit Plans as per Indian and International Accounting Standards etc.

Topic: Careers in Actuarial Profession

Peuli Das
Head Reporting – Actuarial
Reliance Life Insurance Company

Peuli has experience in working across a variety of actuarial operations, in India and US. She is currently heading the Actuarial Reporting function in Reliance Life Insurance Company in Mumbai. She also served as the Appointed Actuary of the company from March 2014 to Jun 2014. Prior to that she led the valuation team at ING Life Insurance, Bangalore, (now known as Exide Life Insurance) from 2011 to 2013.

For a major part of her career in US. she worked for New York Life International, assisting them with GAAP valuation and other reporting aspects.

Topic: Actuarial Examinations - What is expected with particular reference to financial economics?

Brief on topic: The speaker will discuss the following:

- Preparing for actuarial exams
- What examiners want to test from the candidates while setting question paper on a topic
- How to interpret mark allocations and allocate time accordingly
- Certain areas where candidates can score keeping in mind basic expectations of examiners