Webinar in Health and Care Insurance (WHCI)

The IAI is pleased to announce a seminar hosted by the Advisory Group on Health and Care Insurance via web conference.

This is a 90 minutes session which will cover the most topical subject of today, i. e., COVID-19. Speaker will share their views from both global and Indian perspective and the implication of this pandemic on Health Insurance Industry. We have put together a format that will be interactive where participants can ask questions.

Date – 29th May 2020, Friday

Time- 1600 – 1730 IST

Topic: Covid19 – Health insurance business implications and way forward

Chairperson:

Vishwanath Mahendra, Chairperson, Advisory Group on Health Care Insurance, Institute of Actuaries of India

Speaker:

Randip Singh Jagpal, Chief General Manager, IRDAI

Raunak Jha, Secretary, Advisory Group on Health Care Insurance, Institute of Actuaries of India

Anuradha Sriram, Member, Advisory Group on Health Care Insurance, Institute of Actuaries of India

Target Audience- fellows and budding actuaries working in health insurance in Indian market and interested to know the technical as well as practical aspects of COVID-19 and its implications on the Health Insurance Industry. Non-actuaries who are associated with Health Insurance in some form or other may also find the session interesting and useful.
